

Livestock Show Rules

- ✓ Beef, goats, dairy and swine animals are subject to registration, which must be verified by agent or teacher. Registration numbers must be shown on entry form and sent to livestock chairman by October 1, 2023.
- ✓ Livestock brought to fair barn without proper entry form and health papers will not be accepted.
- ✓ Livestock entries may be removed from barn after show.
- ✓ All entries will be classified immediately upon arrival at barn. Classification cannot be changed except with the specific approval of the Chairman of the Livestock Committee.
- ✓ Each entry must be owned by the exhibitor on or before September 1st of the current year showing.
- ✓ Contestants must be present at time of showing.
- ✓ Dairy, beef, goat and swine must be shown by a bona fide FFA or 4-H member. Pre-club children, 9 years and younger, are also encouraged to participate. Must be at least 7 years of age to show swine.
- ✓ Does and wethers will show separately in goat show
- ✓ The Fair will not be responsible for loss or damage to any animal, but it will give good care and attention to prevent loss or damage.
- ✓ All premiums for livestock awards will be paid by the Livestock Committee behind the stage following the shows.
- ✓ Exhibitors are prohibited from staying overnight in the barn.
- ✓ Where there is not adequate competition in an established class, whether to award first place blue ribbon and money will be the decision of the judge.
- ✓ No exhibitor may enter more than two entries in any one class, with the exception of goats.
- ✓ No commercial herd advertising.
- ✓ Animals will be placed in barn at the discretion of the Livestock Chairman.
- ✓ No boar or beef bull classes.
- ✓ Entry Fee - $12.00 per animal.
- ✓ Beef must have neck ropes and halters.